

2018 National Environmental Education Conference Classrooms to Communities (C2C)

October 18-21, 2018

St. Eugene Mission Resort, ʔaq'am Community, Ktunaxa Nation, Southeast British Columbia

From C2C, over 200 educators will gather to learn, share and connect at this made-in-Canada environmental education conference. Located just five minutes from the Canadian Rockies International Airport we welcome you to join us at St. Eugene Mission Resort on the warmer side of the Canadian Rockies.

Guiding Principles:

- ✓ We will model sustainability following the EECOM Green Conference Guidelines.
- ✓ We will model best learning practices by using best practice learning methodology including open space, place-based and inquiry-based learning.
- ✓ St. Eugene Mission Resort is in the ʔaq'am Community (St. Mary's Band) on Ktunaxa Nation territory. Making intentional connections with the Aboriginal community, and Aboriginal Learning and Ways of Knowing, will be foundational to the conference.
- ✓ This conference will be hosted as a partnership between EECOM, CBEEN, and the BC C2C Partnership, including EEPSA, WildBC and Walking the Talk Network.
